ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

See Ray's line of Xmas goods.
It is amusing to watch the number of people who by force of custom cross over to the vacant room of the old Postoffice, and when they discover their mistake hear them remark in a petulant way, "Oh, pahaw; this is a nuisance," and off they start, headed for Plumville.

Cartmel extractteeth without pain.

The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church will entertain with a social tonight in the Sunday-school room of the Church, to which all are invited. An excellent time is assured, as a very good program will be carried out. "The League's Loquacious Literary Ledger" will be read. Please bring a palm leaf fan with you.

If you are looking for Xmas presents we have what you want. See our Signet Rings, Watch Chains and Lockets; Neck Chains, Cuff Buttons and Tie Holders, Brooches, Watches, Diamond Rings, Studs, Scarf Pins, in fact, everything in the line of Gold and Silver. Our store will be open every night until after Xmas. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Yesterday afternoon in making the turn at Third and Market the trolley pole of one of the streetcars jumped the wire and tore down the greater portion of the wire netting that abounds at that particular point. Live wires were scattered about for a time and pedestrians were careful in making the crossing. For a time there was a congestion of cars, but they were soon put in motion by the united efforts of Senator Cox and Superintendent Holiday.

Let all continue and complete the good work of providing relief for the suffering poor. They should not only have a Christmas dinner—which comes but once a year—but they should have warm firesides these winter nights. Let us have a coal fund. Send in your subscriptions and THE LEDGER will lend its aid to good women of the city who have taken the matter up in seeing that it is an accomplished fact. Do not delay. This is a substantial charity, and an investment which no cheerful giver will regret.

CALEB POWERS CASE

Supreme Court Judges Refuse to Set Date For Hearing

The question of jurisdiction in the case of Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in the murder of Goebel, was yesterday presented to the Supreme Court of the United States in the form of a motion for leave to file a petition for a writ of mandamus, commanding United States Judge Cochran of the Eastern District of Kentucky to restore the case to the State Courts and restore Powers to the custody of the Sheriff of Scott county, where Powers' fourth trial was about to begin when Judge Cochran's Court took jurisdiction.

The motion was presented on behalf of the state by Hon. Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., formerly United States Solicitor General.

Attorney General Hays of Kentucky was in the Courtroom.

The Attorneys present representing Caleb Powers were ex-Governor Richard Yates of Illinois, and Attorneys J. C. Sims of Bowling Green, E. L. Worthington of this city, and H. Clay Howard of Paris.

Governor Yates presented a petition for the dismissal of the appeal in the case.

Both parties asked the Court to hear the motions on January 15th, but the Court refused to fix a date.

SQUARED THE ACCOUNT

Young Man Refunded Money Lost at the Gaming Table

Saturday's LEDGER gave an account of a young married man in this city, who held a responsible and lucrative position and was trusted by his employer, going astray by losing his firm's money at the card table, and that it was more than likely the matter would be adjusted outside the Courtroom.

The LEDGER's prediction in regard to the refunding of the money was verified by the young man receiving back the amount lost at the gaming table and he was thereby enabled to make restitution to rightful owner of funds he had wrongfully taken and used in gratifying an insatiable desire for card playing.

A game and thoroughbred gambler would despise such an action; if the shoe had been on t'other foot—that is, if the house had been the loser instead of this tenderfoot—it would have been all right; he would have patted his breast and proclaimed himself a wise guy.

The hero of this episode informed a representative of THE LEDGER that, aside from tossing the cards, he was strictly a moral man and good husband; perhaps that is so.

There is one character that stands out in bold relief in this case, as in all others where a man gets into trouble: It is the good wife who is the beacon light and salvation of the struggling victim in the toils.

It is then he turns to her for succor and aid—and he is seldom disappointed in her trustful and loving heart—and by her tears and pleading he is saved from the stern hand of the law of a punishment that entails imprisonment and disgrace.

May this be a lesson he will take seriously to heart and henceforth walk in the path of uprightness and rectitude.

If there are others in this city trending in the footsteps of this young man, let them pause and consider the evil of their way and have a thought of the bitter fruit that is sure to be garnered by pursuing such a course.

WELL, how do you like the location of the Postoffice now?

BOSTONIANS are still true to the baked bean. Last year they spent $6,598,272 on their favorite diet—more than the cost of two battleships; and no doubt made equally as much noise.

SECRETARY SHAW pleads for an "elastic" currency. Evidently he doesn't handle the brand that occasionally breaks into a country newspaper shop; it's so elastic that it bounces away before one can see all the pictures on it.

JUST think of a statue of WILLIAM GOEBEL, a murderer, in Statuary Hall, with such men as the CRITTENDENS, the BRECKINRIDGES, the MARSHALLS, and scores of others in the background. Surely, Kentucky hasn't become partisan crazy.

THE steamer Doric, which sailed from San Francisco for the Orient, carried $2,600,000 in silver bullion, consigned to the Asiatic coast. Evidently Mr. BRYAN, who is now campaigning for the Presidency in Japan and China, has been feeding the Orientals with free silver soup.

ALL jokes aside, the new Postoffice is modern and complete in every detail, the equipment first-class and up-to-date, and every citizen should be proud of it. The location, however, is abominable; but for this the business men are alone to blame for permitting two or three persons to determine the matter, and they must suffer the consequences.

For convenience, some of our West End business men may buy postage stamps in Newport.

ONE trouble is that some of us poor fellows have to work hard all year to get enough money to buy a Christmas gift.

EDITOR ALTMAYER says the new Postoffice is "a monument to ex-Congressman KEOHE's untiring efforts in behalf of our people." And they came devilish near putting it up in the Cemetery, too.

UNDER the old "spoils system" it wasn't deemed necessary to fit up Public Buildings with "lookouts" and "spy-holes" for Detectives to watch employees. But, then, some of these Civil Service clerks need watching—to keep them from earning more than their salaries.

If the cry, "Kentucky for Kentuckians" means that Kentuckians shall stay at home and build up their own state, instead of going to other states and building them up, then I'm in favor of Kentuckians for Kentucky; but if it means that we don't want outsiders and outside capital to come to Kentucky, then I'm ferninst the cry. Kentucky can't have too many of the right sort of new-comers; she doesn't want any more of the wrong sort than she has now.

WAS THIS IN MAYSVILLE?

An honest and stupid Irishman, who had worked for a coal dealer half a year, and shown no capacity to learn his duties, was finally discharged.

"Go to the office and get your money. I've been patient with you, but you are too thick-headed to learn anything," said the proprietor.

"All right, sor," answered Barney; "mebbe Oim tick-headed, as yez say, but Oi've learned wan t'ing, annaway."

"If you have, and learned it well, I'll not discharge you," said the proprietor, banteringly; "now, what have you learned?"

"Oi've learned, sor, that seventeen hundred makes a ton in this place," replied Barney, and he went back to work.

SNOW.

If you expect to buy any land this winter take a look at it while the country is free from snow. You will have a very poor idea of a farm if you ride over it when it is covered by a liberal amount of the "beautiful." The following farms are in my hands for sale, and if you want one of them you should not delay, as they are liable to be sold any day—

The John N. Owens Homestead of 193 acres, located near Lewisburg, Mason county, Ky. Price $80 per acre. If purchaser desires, the number of acres can be reduced to 140, as an adjacent land owner is willing to buy this part of the tract.

Farm of 236 acres with 1 1/2 story log and frame house of 6 rooms and tenant house of 4 rooms. Barn 72x40; another barn that will hold 6,000 pounds of tobacco. Known as the Frank Pyles farm. Now owned by H. M. and W. E. Pyles. Price $45 per acre.

Farm of 170 acres, located about 6 miles from Maysville and about 300 yards from the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike. Brick and frame tenement house of 4 rooms.

OPEN LETTER TO MAYSVILLE SHOPPERS

At this season of the year your paramount interest in life is, "What shall I select for Christmas presents, and where shall I go to make choice?" A complete directory of desirable articles and where they are to be had is furnished by THE LEDGER advertising display. There's absolutely no excuse for not buying your Holiday goods in Maysville. Never have there been more beautiful stocks in all lines, and never have prices been so low.

It's this useless "head" that makes a cigar cost you 5 cents. It takes considerable cleverness and time to form the "head" on a cigar. And that's why one cigar with the head on it costs you three times as much as an Old Virginia Cheroot.

OLD VIRGINIA CHEROOTS

Package of 3 for 5 cents

(A cheroot is a cigar made without the head)

If you want a cigar that's all cigar—no useless "head" to pay for and then clip off and throw away—made from five different evenly blended grades of fine domestic tobacco, and made in the cleanest cigar-factory in the world,—all you have to do is to pass over a nickel and say "Old Virginia Cheroots" wherever cigars are sold.

Your 5 cents will buy three of the million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked every day.

Sold wherever they sell tobacco

CALLER A THIEF

Winfield Buckler of Carlisle Sues Railroad for Damages

Winfield Buckler of Carlisle has brought suit in the El Paso (Tex.) District Court against the El Paso and Northeastern Railway, for being called a thief. He asks $2,500 damages.

In October last year he and his wife went to El Paso over the Northeastern road.

He declares when the Pullman porter made up his berth, the porter threw something behind it. Soon after the conductor appeared and charged him with stealing a satchel containing $10.

The satchel was found behind the berth, and he was summoned before the Company's Attorney and an explanation demanded.

He was in ill health and he asserts that the unjust accusation caused him anxiety and produced his illness.

RAVAGES OF SOME GREAT FAMINES

It has been calculated that more than 2,000 persons starved to death in Spain last summer, says The New York Herald. The famine was due to the drouth. Horrifying as are these figures the Spanish mortality occupies an unimportant place in the record of the world's great famines.

In the great famine in India in 1769-70 3,000,000 people are supposed to have perished, and 1,500,000 died in the famine of 1866. In 1873 the rice crop in the district of Behar, in Northwestern Bengal, yielded only a quarter of the average harvest, and as 15,000,000 people were dependent on this crop for sustenance the Government was obliged to make purchases of rice, chiefly in farther India, and provide means of conveying it to the districts, including the building of a railway forty-five miles long. For a long time 3,000,000 persons received daily support, either in alms, in work or in loans. This relief was continued from October, 1873, till December, 1874. In this way, the Government expended $32,000,000. Donations, also, amounting to over a million dollars, were contributed by private subscription. In this way the death rate was kept down to only twenty-five persons.

In 1876 both of the monsoons failed to bring their due supply of rain, and the season of 1877 was little better. The consequences of this prolonged drouth, which extended from the Deccan to Cape Comorin and subsequently invaded Northern India, were more disastrous than any similar calamity up to that time since the introduction of British rule. Notwithstanding unparalleled importations of grain by sea and rail, and despite the most strenuous exertions of the Government, which expended about $55,000,000 for the purpose, the loss of life from actual starvation and its attendant train of diseases and want in the distressed tracts, in excess of the normal mortality, for two years, 1876-78, is estimated to have raised the death rate by 40%, or 5,250,000.

Great famines have occurred in Persia in recent years and Russia has had many during the past century, but the most terrible famine in recent times was the Irish famine of 1845-47. It was caused by the loss of the potato crop. Ireland had at that time a population of about eight and a half millions, and it was largely dependent upon the potato crop.

The crop of 1845 was a partial failure and the peasantry, who had no surplus food of former harvests to fall back upon, were compelled to take clothing and household furniture to the pawnshops to purchase food and seed for the next harvest. Unfortunately, the crop of 1846 was a total failure and absolute ruin and starvation threatened the whole population. The Government was slow in taking adequate relief measures and great numbers died for want of food and from disease caused by lack of proper sustenance. Several million dollars were raised by private subscription, and the Government contracted a loan of $8,000,000 to supply the wants of the suffering people. When the full extent of the calamity was realized the British Government and people did everything possible, and large sums of money and shiploads of provisions were sent from this country. At one time 3,000,000 Irish people were receiving rations. A million and a half of people died of starvation or disease.

The Indian famine of 1896-97 was the most severe ever known in that famine-afflicted country. The great famine of 1877 affected 257,000 square miles and 58,000,000 persons. That of 1897 affected 322,000 square miles and 68,000,000 persons. The highest number receiving relief in 1877 was 3,178,000, while in 1897 more than 4,500,000 were aided during the month of June.

The United States Government Snagboat E. A. Woodruff has closed its annual trip, clearing the rivers under its jurisdiction, and has gone into winter quarters at Cincinnati. The territory covers the entire Ohio river and its tributaries.

The packets have all been off their regular schedules owing to fog, high water, etc. Ice will most likely next interfere with navigation. Freight business is only moderate with the packets and passenger traffic is expected pick up after Christmas.

The Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, appointed to consider the necessity of ice piers in the Ohio river at Cincinnati to prevent recurrence of the serious losses sustained last winter to river interests, has forwarded its approval to Secretary of War Taft.

The first adoption of steam as a motive power, and its adaptation to the purpose of navigation, was exhibited to the Emperor and King Charles V. in the year 1543 by a Spanish sea captain, with an engine intended to propel ships and other vessels of the largest size, even in perfect calm, without the assistance of sails or oars.

Mrs. Georgia Martin Stimpson of Pueblo, Col., formerly Miss Georgia Martin of Millersburg, was recently married to Mr. Stephen W. Morgan of San Diego, Cal. Mr. Morgan is a brother-in-law of ex-Vice-President Hendricks of Indiana, is wealthy and owns a ranch near San Diego.

Deputy Sheriff Grant Holiday of Breathitt county was shot and killed at Jackson Sunday while endeavoring to arrest Jake and Jerry Noble. Jake Noble was shot in the face by Holiday and seriously wounded. There is much excitement at Jackson, some ascribing the killing to ill feeling growing out of the recent election.

The only witness to a fatal tragedy that occurred in North Middletown forty-three years ago has been found in the person of Nat Rogers, a prominent citizen of Bourbon county. At that time John Simpson was killed by Joseph Langston. Rogers, who witnessed the affair, disappeared, joining Morgan's command. He now says Langston's act was justifiable.

Voice of the People

Editor of Ledger: It is the belief of the writer that The Bulletin's critic did not speak disparagingly of the performance of the Rajah of Bhong Company through spite or malice, but simply from not being versed in that kind of play. ## AN AWFUL SKIN DISEASE

Sores Covered Neck and Cheeks—Itched Day and Night—Nothing Did Me Any Good—Was Growing Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $4.50

Miss Nellie Vander Wiele, of Lakeside, N. Y., writing under date of April 18, 1904, says: "I do wish you would publish this letter in the newspapers, so that others suffering as I have may see it and be helped. I suffered for many months with an awful skin disease, sores covering my ears, neck, and cheeks. Scabs would form and they would swell, and it itched day and night. Then they would break open and bleed and matter run out. I had tried many different remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was growing worse when I tried the Cuticura Remedies. The first application helped me, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, I was completely cured."

TORTURING, DISFIGURING

Humours, Eczemas, Itchings, and Chaffings Cured by Cuticura

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt by the testimony of the civilized world.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion. A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

M. C. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble, and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take as substitute.
